CONFERENCE CODE OF CONDUCT

IPhA is committed to providing a safe, productive, and welcoming environment for all meeting participants and staff. All participants, including, but not limited to, attendees, speakers, volunteers, exhibitors, staff members, service providers, and all others are expected to abide by this Code of Conduct. This Policy applies to all IPhA meeting-related events, including those sponsored by organizations other than IPhA but held in conjunction with IPhA events; on public or private platforms.

IPhA has zero-tolerance for any form of discrimination or harassment, including but not limited to, sexual harassment by participants or our staff at our meetings. If you experience harassment or hear of any incidents of unacceptable behavior, please notify IPhA immediately.

Unacceptable Behavior is defined as:

- Harassment, intimidation, or discrimination in any form.
- Verbal abuse of any attendee, speaker, volunteer, exhibitor, IPhA staff member, service provider, or other meeting guest, disruption of presentations during sessions, in the exhibit hall, or at other events organized by IPhA throughout the meeting. All participants must comply with the instructions of the moderator and any IPhA event staff.
 - * Examples of verbal abuse include, but are not limited to, verbal comments related to gender, sexual orientation, disability, physical appearance, body size, race, religion, national origin, inappropriate use of nudity and/or sexual images in public spaces or in presentations, or threatening or stalking any attendee, speaker, volunteer, exhibitor, IPhA staff member, service provider, or other meeting guests.
- Presentations, postings, and messages should not contain promotional materials, special offers, job offers, product announcements, or solicitation for services. IPhA reserves the right to remove such messages and potentially ban sources of those solicitations.
- Participants should not copy or take screenshots of Q&A or any chat room activity that takes place in the virtual space.

IPhA reserves the right to take any action deemed necessary and appropriate, including immediate removal from the meeting without warning or refund, in response to any incident of unacceptable behavior, and IPhA reserves the right to prohibit attendance at any future meeting, virtually or in person.
